The Editor-in-Chief of the European Journal of Soil Science (EJSS) is pleased to work in partnership with the Organising Committee of the 'The 2nd National Symposium on Soil Analysis' (26-29 May 2021, Dunhuang, China) to prepare a Special Issue of selected papers for publication.

'I have pleasure in inviting delegates of the 'The 2nd National Symposium on Soil Analysis' to submit research manuscripts, presenting novel approaches for the analysis of soils that deepen our understanding of physical, chemical and biological processes in soil, for consideration for a Special Issue of the EJSS.'
